This will be a casual event. Friends and family are invited to participate. You can share your own remarks or we can provide you with a reading to recite. We hope printed copies of all remarks, whether read aloud or not, will be placed in our binder of letters and messages for Larry.

We plan to record this event so we can share it with family and friends who cannot attend.

Larry's obituary and other information will be posted soon at www.odonnellfuneralhome.com
